

■ VAN THE MAN: Jordan Hughes (back row, fourth from right), Jake Weber (front row, second from left) and Daniel Richards (front row, third from left) line up for the cameras. Jake's brother Luke is below (back row fifth from right)

Photos contributed

Young guns camp on hallowed turf

IT WAS no ordinary sleepover for four boys last month when they camped out on the pitch of their favourite football team.

The Arsenal fans from West Drayton and Ruislip joined 200 others to camp out at the Emirates Stadium, having enjoyed a kick-about on the hallowed turf, a post-match meal and a movie.

Jordan Hughes, 11, from West Drayton, joined Ruislip boys Jake and Luke Weber, aged 8 and 11, and Daniel Richards, also 11, as the four were chosen to become the first in the club's history to camp on the pitch.