chosen by... 9XWI

WORD of the WEEK

Literacy Matters
inalienable
Definition of inalienable (adjective) in English:

Not subject to being taken away from or given away by the possessor.
Word of the week
Synonyms

undisputable unchallengeable absolute undeniable
1) Freedom from slavery remains an inalienable human right today.

2) He now realizes that it is a privilege, not an inalienable right, to play in the NFL.

3) I believe it is their inalienable right to speak out.
Use the adjective inalienable as many times as possible throughout the week and you could receive Vivo points every time!

This can be verbally, in your written work or even when you hear an adult around the school using it.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Lancaster</th>
<th>Stuart</th>
<th>Tudor</th>
<th>Windsor</th>
<th>York</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Miss Walker: Flourish
10YLA: magnanimous
8YLA: satisfy
8YLA: Ebb | Miss Moore: Curious
9YST: auspicious
11XST: miser
10YST: dipterus
8XST: congestion
11YST: inspiring
Miss Moore: gregarious
8YST: rambunctious
7XST: purposeful
9YST: sluggish | 9XTU: diabolical
10XTU: superfluous | 10YWI: infelicity
10YWI: multifarious
7YWI: tumultuous
9YWI: dignity
9XWI: inalienable | 7YYO: nonchalant |