

Read It

presentation

Define It

A presentation is a speech that explains or introduces something to an audience.

Digging Deeper:

Presentation can also refer to the way someone or something is presented, for example a social introduction in court. It can also refer to the presentation of belongings or areas, for example the presentation of work in an exercise book or portfolio.

Draw It

Deconstruct It

From the Latin praesentationem, meaning placing before.

Link It

Address, key note, speech, dialogue.

Use It

He made a presentation to the class about the benefits of karate.