

20th March 2020

Friday 20th March – The school is currently open.

As you are aware, today will be the last day for the majority of our students. They will be leaving school at 2.30pm.

We are currently processing responses to our online forms for key worker families and a number of students who receive extra support. We will be emailing all families who responded and are eligible with details of our in school provision.

Information will follow next week about support for those families who currently receive free school meals.

Our office phone lines will remain open until 3.30pm this afternoon with a short break between 2.40pm and 3pm.

School will be open for staff and your telephone enquiries on Monday.

Yours faithfully

N B Clemens
