

Uxbridge High School
is committed to equalities and to The Equality Act 2010

We believe that all of our students are of equal value. To this end we will not unlawfully discriminate against students because of their disability, gender, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation, those undergoing gender reassignment or those who are pregnant or have recently had a baby.